

George Orwell 1903-1950
(Eric Arthur Blair)

SAMPLE SLIDES

Introduction to the life and work of George Orwell. From his birth in India and schooling in England, Orwell is followed to Burma where experience of Colonial life instilled in him a resentment of all forms of social injustice. His subsequent adventures on the road and experiences in the Spanish Civil War and World War II are described whilst his simultaneous careers as novelist, social commentator and journalist are examined. Orwell's major novels are briefly discussed and several of his Essays are considered.
