

Jeffrey Smart b1921

Survey of the life, work and achievement of the Australian artist Jeffrey Smart. The evolution of Smart's art is traced from the early years in Adelaide, Sydney and Europe as he searches for a personal mode of expression through to the final decades in Tuscany when an established modus operandi allows for the creation of subtle and witty interpretations of the man made environment. Smart's creative process and his particular interest in pictorial design is discussed with reference to many examples of painting from various stages of his career.

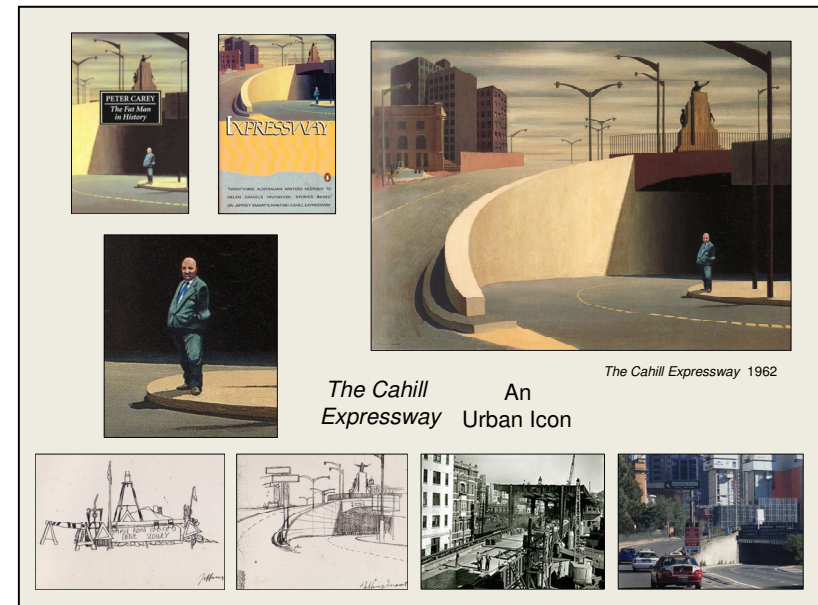

Sketch for Approaching Storm

Threatening Skies and Threatened Innocence

El Greco View of Toledo

Still from Battleship Potemkin

SAMPLE SLIDES

The Cahill Expressway An Urban Icon

The Cahill Expressway 1962