

John Brack 1920-1999

Chronological survey of the life and work of Australian artist John Brack. Traces his career from early studies in Melbourne and the first explorations of city and suburban life through to his final ambitious set pieces of pencils, playing cards and artists' mannekins. Brack's place in Australian art is considered and examples from all stages of his career are discussed.

SAMPLE SLIDES

60 Slides & Video 2 x 75 Minute sessions