

"DON'T PASS ME BY"
 Ringo's first songwriting effort and, naturally enough, it's in one of his favourite styles—Country. Ringo sings and plays piano here and there's a terrific Country fiddle sound by courtesy of a session musician. The lyrics tell an "I love only you" story about a boy waiting for his girl to knock on the front door and hoping she'll turn up. Later on in the song we find out why she's so late—she was involved in a minor car crash. Recording began on July 12 at EMI Studios.

think of God as a big piece of energy, like electricity, a big power-house.

GEORGE: Or the energy which runs through everything and makes everything one.

JOHN: Everything you read about, all the religions, are all the same basically. It's just a matter of people opening their minds up. I don't know how divine or super-human Maharishi is. He was probably born quite ordinary but he's working at it.

GEORGE: If everybody took up meditation it would help them to sort out their own problems, put their houses in order, if you like. - So if people fix up their - problems that's it, we're way aren't we. It's up individual, every person, s own move.

thing is it's simple. All to do is to be INTER- If you don't believe in n and you're cynical about still no reason why you t try to find out WHAT o cynical about. And the y to find out is to learn meditation and give it a try. you'll have the right to an or otherwise.
