

Paris in the Spring

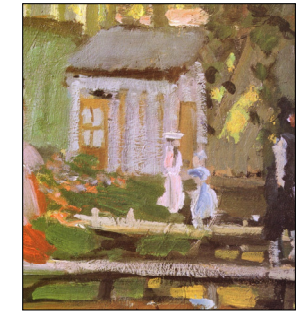

An Impressionist Calendar

An introduction to the 19th Century painters known today as the French Impressionists. Although familiar and accessible in the 21st Century, their work was challenging and game changing in its time. We will trace the evolution of the movement, year by year, and follow the artistic development of artists such as Manet, Monet, Pissarro, and Renoir as they explore radical new techniques which will allow them to capture truthful records of contemporary life.
